Durcal, Costa Tropical, Espagne

ID#: 209545

Description:

Plot of land on the very edge of the urban limits of the busy market town of Dúrcal. The land has good access and has permission to build an agricultural store of 10m at the moment. It is very likely that this plot become urban land in the very near future and so much more building could be applied for. There is abundant irrigation water on the land and connections to mains electricity and water are next to the property. The land is plant...
