Description:

The village of El Borge lies at the foot of Mount Cerro de Cutar and is known as the "raisin capital" because it is one of the largest producers of Muscatel raisins. It is therefore no surprise that El Borge is one of the villages of the Ruta de la Pasa (the Raisin route), and that you can see many paseros in the area (areas where grapes are dried by the sun and converted into delicious raisins) . Just outside this village we...
